In a short competition format, difference is a powerful enemy. Gamers can not simply suffer a cold streak. Rivals need to know when to take calculated threats-- such as doubling down on soft overalls or splitting low pairs-- even when intuition screams warn. On the other hand, when holding a commanding chip lead, protecting those chips by playing conservatively becomes vital.

3. Bankroll and Bet Sizing

- Watch on the leaderboards: Always know where you stand relative to the cut-off line.
- Avoid stagnancy: If you are being in a qualifying position with just 2 hands left, stop betting big amounts. Safeguard the property.
- Aggression when behind: If you are outside the cash with three hands staying, standard bets will not save you. You must scale up your wagers to catch the leaders.
