Southwest Roanoke County stretches from the busy Route 419 corridor out toward Back Creek and Bent Mountain, with neighborhoods tucked into hollows and hillsides all along the way. It is a big area with a lot of variety, and it is home turf for The Happy Housekeepers. Since 1979, this family company has handled house cleaning in Roanoke County from its office on Starkey Road.

Homes out here often come with more square footage, bigger yards and longer driveways. That also means more floors to vacuum and mop, more bathrooms to clean and more ways for the outdoors to find its way inside. Red clay, grass clippings and leaves all ride in on shoes and paws, and a regular cleaning schedule keeps them from grinding into carpets and hardwood.

The standard visit covers dusting or polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors, a complete kitchen clean-up and a total bathroom clean-up. Window sills, Article source baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, waste baskets emptied and cobwebs cleared. For larger homes, the crew works room by room so nothing gets overlooked, from the main living spaces to the guest bedroom over the garage.

Larger county homes also tend to have finished basements, bonus rooms and formal spaces that see little daily use but still collect dust. Specialized services such as basement cleaning, washing walls and woodwork and cleaning light fixtures keep those areas in good shape. Many customers schedule these during spring and fall cleanings so the whole house gets attention at the same time.

Because the office is right in southwest Roanoke County, crews are close by. That helps with consistent scheduling and fewer delays, which matters for households in Penn Forest, Starkey, Cotton Hill and the neighborhoods off Merriman Road. Associates at the office can answer questions by phone or email, and the company follows up after the first visit to make sure you are pleased.

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, and its staff are bonded and insured by the business, so you do not have to be home. The BBB blue seal and decades of local reviews give county homeowners extra confidence. Plans can be one-time, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly.
