

LVL Music Academy is distinctive among Singapore's music schools in that it combines a fully stocked violin shop and luthier workshop with a professional teaching programme. Students who learn at LVL have the advantage of access to quality instruments, expert repair services, and informed guidance on equipment from the same team that teaches them. The teaching programme at LVL covers violin lessons for all ages and levels, from toddlers taking their first steps with the instrument to adult learners and advanced students preparing for ABRSM examinations. Principal Janice Senejani, with over two decades of professional performance and teaching experience, leads a team of highly qualified teachers that includes European, Russian, and local instructors. For families who are new to the violin, the combination of purchasing or renting a properly set-up instrument from LVL's shop and enrolling in lessons at the same academy creates an optimal learning environment. Parents can be confident that the instrument their child is learning on is appropriate for their level and correctly set <https://speakerdeck.com/patricgxqu> up, rather than making do with a poorly adjusted instrument that makes learning unnecessarily difficult.
