Valve, the developer of Counter-Strike, introduced weapon skins in 2013 via the "Arms Deal" update. Due to the fact that skins can be traded, offered on the Steam Community Market, or cashed out through third-party markets, they effectively became a digital currency.

- Roulette: A staple of both standard and crypto-casinos. Players bet on red, black, or green (frequently corresponding to team logo designs or unique multipliers) where a virtual wheel determines the winner.
- Crash: A multiplier steadily ticks up from 1.00 x upwards. Gamers should "cash out" before the multiplier arbitrarily crashes. If it crashes before cash-out, the bet is lost.
- Coinflip: A classic 1v1 heads-or-tails game where two players wager skins of approximately equivalent worth, and a digital coin flip identifies the winner of the entire pot.
- Esports Betting: Wagering skins or fiat currency on professional CS competitions (such as ESL Pro League or Majors), anticipating match winners, map ratings, or specific in-game occasions.
